

Dr. P. Kavita Vasudevan

Dr. Kavita Vasudevan P did her MBBS & MD (Community Medicine) from JIPMER, Pondicherry MBA (Hospital Management) from Alagappa University, Karaikudi, FAIMER Fellow at FAIMER Regional Institute, PSG-Coimbatore. Currently she is working as Professor & Head of the Department, Community Medicine, Indira Gandhi Medical College & Research Institute, Pondicherry She has 21 years of teaching experience, of which, for 11 years she was a Professor & HOD.

She is

- Nodal Person for the Model Rural Health Research Unit (MRHRU) in Puducherry, established by the Department of Health Research, GOI, New Delhi
- Nodal person for the Sentinel Surveillance site for National One Health Program- for Prevention & Control of Zoonosis
- Member secretary of the Institute research committee at IGMCR&RI
- Chairperson of South Zone 2 (Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Pondicherry) NTEP Zonal task force Operational Research Committee
- Chairperson of the Institute Ethics Committee at Aarupadai Veedu Medical College
- Guided for 14 PG dissertations for MD Community Medicine and 2 PhD theses
- Received funding for research projects from Department of Health Research, ICMR, National Center for Disease control, National AIDS control society, NTEP operational research committee, Pondicherry state Health mission
- Has more than 80 publications in national and international journals
- Organised research methodology workshops, state level conference, CME and capacity building workshops